The musical score is written for the II° Tromba part of the song 'SE PARLI ITALIANO'. It consists of nine staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a common time signature (C), and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The music is written in a merengue style, characterized by its rhythmic patterns. The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and beams. There are also dynamic markings, including 'sf' (sforzando) on the third and ninth staves. The score is divided into two main sections by repeat signs. The first section ends with a first ending bracket labeled '1'. The second section begins with a second ending bracket labeled '2'. The score concludes with a final double bar line.
